Things That Can Distract Us From God: What do you think are some of the distractions?

Relationships

I'm sure you knew this one would be here. Every kind of relationship has the potential to fall into this category. Friends, parents, siblings, spouses, girl/boy friends, children, co-workers, bosses, etc. We can allow any of these relationships to distract us from God. It is our relationships that are our connection with the world, and it is our human nature to have them, but when we allow any one of these relationships to become more important to us than our relationship with God...well, they become a distraction.

Remember, God calls us to love one another (1 John 3:11), so when we do, it is an act of obedience to him. But don't forget about God in the process.

I would have to say the relationship with the most danger of becoming a distraction from our walk with God would be that of a boyfriend, girlfriend, or spouse. These relationships in their nature, demand the most time, and that is why it is extremely important that they are centered around God. If they aren't, you will see your walk with God spiraling downward.

In a nutshell, relationships are extremely important, but our relationship with God is of the utmost importance. Remember that!
